Clinical Commissioning Group

Lancashire North AGM fast approaching

The Lancashire North Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCG) Annual General Meeting is fast approaching with the agenda now available below.

During the meeting participants will be able to visit the market place to find out more about what the CCG has been doing in the last 12 months and ask any questions they wish. Whilst participants are free to ask any question they wish on the day, so the CCG can make sure they have all the information needed to ensure a full response they are asking for any questions in advance if possible.

To confirm your attendance at the AGM or ask a question contact Info@lancashirenorthccg.nhs.uk

September is Blood Cancer Awareness Month

There are many different types of blood cancers including leukaemia, lymphoma, myeloma and rarer types such as the myelodysplastic syndromes (MDS) and the myeloproliferative neoplasms (MPN).

Blood cancers can cause many different symptoms. Some are common across all blood cancers, others are more characteristic of particular types of blood cancer.

You can find out more about the symptoms and treatment for the different types by using this link.
