Healthwatch Lancashire visit reports remarkable service improvements at Royal Lancaster Infirmary

Healthwatch Lancashire have visited the Lancaster Suite at Royal Lancaster Infirmary for the second time in just over twelve months and recognised a considerable improvement to the service provided for patients.

Healthwatch Lancashire undertook an unannounced Enter and View visit to the Lancaster Suite, previously known as Ward 39, on 19th May 2016 with the findings showing that a number of changes from the previous visit have been upheld and staff commented to say that they “can see a big difference” in the ward.
